Sandy,
I told you before
I couldn't think of anything clever to say
so don't expect too
much. ok? ok!
We've had a great
friendship since grade school. - And those
are something rare, Sandy,
I think you are right.
That we are both looking for the something.
That certain person. I'm sure that one day we'll both find that person.
Just Remember - to be yourself - (That's about as philosophical as I go!) As long as you're yourself - you & everyone else will be happy.

Sandy, we were both sad to see my Mother go (although I never thought it'd be.) I'll be home sometime. Good luck with everything and with a brother like Steve you'll probably need it (ha ha) Miss you!

Sandy (cont.)

I imagine I will be pretty lonely without you during the winter - don't I? "Rome - on - Rn?" but I'm sure a girl like you will always find something to do. (I told you it would make any sense.) I hope your studying & entering to Yale are happy ones, and that you have much success in final year. You have always been a friend.

Love,

Jon

P.S. A person who wears a wig goes around under an assumed name. (a today's chuckle)

and that's what I want you to be - is happy.
Have fun in your last year - & have it fast. Your senior year goes the fastest.
Believe me!
Lots of Love to one of my best friends,

Jon

Sandy (Sam)

Hi! I may get this written if you set & coach me. * You said you have a feeling this year (Senior year) is going to be different & hope it is. How different is up to us to figure out, I guess.

I'm going to give you a little advice. It also pertains to me. There are lots of guys like John. Wait and find one. There is lots of time to look. Don't get discouraged. Have lots of fun this year and we'll have to work on your ability to get into whatever it is you get into.

I was thinking about when you get your .. new "choppers". I'm getting used to you without them now. Now, I'm gonna have to get used to you again Ha! I'm really am glad that you had the courage to go through with it, and I know it took courage. I think I'm as anxious as you are about the change. (almost)

Well, here we set discussing me, and I've used all my intelligence. So I'll write again later.

I've regained a part of my intelligence so I'm ready to continue - I hope you find Senior year a lot of fun & know you'll have to find it a little hard, but I think you'll be able to face anything unpleasant xoo if you know what I mean.

Well I'll let you go now. Be good and have fun trying Ha!

Lots of Luck Always! Luv ya, Cadie (Cathy)

Colombians live together, concerned in keeping their independence in thinking and individuality, full of irresistible charm, love for sports, and outside activities, and lots of fun. Colombia is a country that faces the big challenges of modern civilization with problems in education. Fortunately, our rate in illiteracy is dropping steadily. Another weak point is the economy, which 20 year ago depended solely upon the coffee which was exported. Now it seems that somebody has called me and said, "That was it, Al." Oh, yes, I'm leaving physically, but in my heart will remain a deep feeling of gratitude and thanks to you, my friends of I.V.C. and I'm sure that your warm friendship will be the best memory of this wonderful year.

AL SANCHEZ--BARRANQCILLA, COLOMBIA

PAT GREIGARN--BANKOK, THAILAND

Thailand's government is a constitutional monarchy, headed by a king and queen who are very much respected. The Prime Minister represents the people. Most of the people are rice farmers and Buddhist. We export more rice than any other country in the world today. Besides rice, Thailand is famous for silk, and teak wood. The most popular sport is soccer, which we call "Football". Other sports are basketball, rugby, Thai boxing, kite flying, and fish fighting. Only first to seventh grade is required in school, but there are twelve grades available. Two of these are like high school, but are called "pre-university." There are four universities in Thailand.

Golf

This is the first time there has been a golf team at Illinois Valley Central. Although the team did not win many games this year, they did learn the fundamentals of golf and good sportsmanship while competing with other teams. With these skills they will be ready for next golf season.

Sandy,
Hi there, friend
of my sister's. Good luck during your
last year at I.V.C.
Rianne Gibson

June 5, 1969

The lights have been turned off for the last time. The final bell has rung on another year--a year of great changes in the school--a new school, a new name. However, the Sequence has remained through the changes and is, I hope, as meaningful as all the past issues have been.

There are many people to thank, many who worked hard to produce this Sequence. To Curt Grusy, a special thanks for being the greatest assistant editor ever. Also, to Susie Gill, JoAnn March and Phyllis Sager for giving up many of their study halls and after school hours to help. Others who merit recognition for their work are Bruce Conroy, Linda Brown, Kathy Case, Gary Jacquet, ~~Dave~~ Mills, and "Al" Sanchez.

Don

There are many more to thank, but the greatest asset to the 1969 Sequence, and all the earlier issues, was Mrs. Carroll. Without her advice and guidance there would not be a 1969 Sequence. I don't know what they will do without her next year.

I hope that you will be as proud of this Sequence as I am and enjoy looking through it in the future as much as I enjoyed editing it.

Cindy Hoyt

Sandy,
Well I do owe you

Dear Sandy —

I'll always remember the times at work (I didn't say with pleasure HA-HA) when we had "stimulating" discussions. Well, without me around for psycological help, maybe you can find a good doctor and get some help with your problem (your children might read this some day, so I'll refrain from mentioning the exact nature of it). I usually throw a bit of philosophy in yearbook writings, but I can't think of anything that applies exactly to you, so I'll have to make do with this: (my own incoherent rambling)

We only pass this way once; enjoy life while you can without hurting anyone if you can help it. I found my senior year made the most impression on my life (becoming, I think, more mature). I hope it works the same for you. But ~~Sandra~~ SORRY ~~Sandy~~ remember: it is the only one you'll have.

I hope I haven't tried to say too much, and you don't have to follow my advice. But I'll always remember our friendship as one of the high points of my life. HAVE FUN, GOOD-LUCK, & Love,

Gary "Rufus, JUKE" Jaquet

P.S. Sorry about filling up a page with lousy penmanship. But I tried!

Sandy

Though you are my rival, and a few difficult times, you still are on my score sheet
as a friend. But Steve is mine.

Mary
Just joking!!

Sandy,

Hi! Well here starts another year of fun and frolic. Sure I hope! I hope this year will be the best year we have ever had! Have fun and
Be good!

Phyllis

Sam
If you're in my shorthand class this year I thought I should tell you that I want to keep me working as much as I can.
Be good now!
Always your friend
Tom

Sam, (Sandy)

We've had lots of fun (and fights). The good old days
has taken a lot from all of us. It's a good thing it can't take. Good luck in everything (especially boys.)

Sandy

FUN. AIN'T
IT!
